

Legal Notice -to- New World Bible Translation Committee

A introductory letter has been written by a practising New York attorney with a Ph.D. in Philosophy, about – illustrated (potential) evidence,* 24 years of Australian biblical [exploration], that the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures is key/to. The gatherer of the [evidence] has gained and in a demonstration of [it], produces personal references, from, the Director of the ‘Institute for Judaism and Civilization’ in Melbourne Australia + ‘The Jewish Centre’ in Tasmania Australia. Said evidence demonstrates “ ‘(a) feature of New World Translation critical apparatus 125 000 cross - references forming scripture into vistas (a) critique as to (a) future significance of Isaiah 46 : 11’ ” potential evidence demonstrates said ‘feature’ & associated matters arising in Australia where world events past present & future are addressed by {potential evidence} whose gatherer seeks the assessment of New World Bible Translation Committee’s former members at this 2017 time could any former member please contact the evidence’s gatherer, it + introductory letter & supplementary info. are in {5 & 1 megabyte files} for e-mailing from:

Thomson A.
11 Benboyd Court
Rokeby 7019
TAS Australia
native_title@hotmail.com
+ 61 (3) 624-71049

*Please note the relevant act, in (a) potential civil case, is Australia’s Native Title Act 1993 (in a world context) where the translator’s expertise as potential expert witnesses, on translation, [is] being explored... This notice attempts to - inform - disbanded translators who are incommunicado [have no known contact] ~ would anyone who knows of them, please if possible, bring this article -to- their attention or alternatively direct them -to- <https://newworldbibletranslationcommittee.com> for a demonstration of the works.

Thank you.